PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS: Join us as we kick-off the evening's schedule with a Roundtable Discussion followed by an in-depth presentation on one home exterior finishing product line that is becoming increasingly popular – James Hardie Fiber Cement Siding and Backerboard. Fiber cement products have been receiving a lot of attention on home improvement shows including This Old House. We will welcome Jeff Harvey, the Boston Metro territory manager for James Hardie Building Products for a two-hour program that will offer a comprehensive introduction to the James Hardie product line. Discussion will focus on the composition, performance characteristics and attributes of James Hardie Fiber Cement products and their application in residential construction and remodeling. The presentation will also address proper installation techniques and what some of the options are for installation. Jeff will also offer a discussion about product warranties and aesthetic considerations.

COST: The Early-Bird cost for ASHI-New England dues paid "certified" members, candidates, their spouses and employees is $50 (if registered by close of business May 19). The non-member fee is $75 (This fee will be applied to membership when joining the New England Chapter.) After May 19, the cost is $75 for all.
